Knox City Clinic Welcomes Dr. Ruth Ebangit to the Region

The family practice physician is the latest medical provider added to the local medical community by Knox County Hospital District.

KNOX CITY, Texas (Dec. 4, 2023) – Knox County Hospital District (KCHD) is pleased to announce the newest member of the local medical team, Dr. Ruth Ebangit. As a distinguished board-certified family practice physician, Dr. Ebangit now serves patients at Knox City Clinic, further enhancing the hospital district’s commitment to providing exceptional healthcare to the community.

“In our ongoing efforts to bridge healthcare gaps in the community, we actively search for medical providers,” says Stephen Kuehler, CEO of KCHD. “Family physicians play a crucial role in any community, and we are delighted to welcome skilled professionals like Dr. Ebangit to Knox County.”

As a board-certified family medicine physician, Dr. Ebangit provides comprehensive preventive care for individuals of all ages. As a primary source for medical care, she works with patients on routine checkups, health-risk assessments, and personalized consultations on maintaining a healthy lifestyle and coordinates care with subspecialists as needed for a well-rounded approach to critical care.

As the primary healthcare physician, Dr. Ebangit can attend to and treat individuals across the entire age spectrum, including infants, children, adults, and seniors.

Dr. Ebangit brings a wealth of experience to Knox County, having studied pre-medicine and receiving a Bachelor of Science degree from Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Okla. Dr. Ebangit also received her Master of Public Health and Doctor of Medicine degrees from St. George’s University in Grenada, West Indies.

With a residency in family medicine at the University of Texas Health & Science Center in San Antonio, and various physician and medical director roles across Texas, the Lone Star State remains deep in her heart.

“Texas is my home, and there is nowhere else I would rather be practicing than here,” Dr. Ebangit explains. “I’m looking forward to getting to know the greater Knox City region more and building lasting relationships with families in the region.”
